This session is to discuss any complex phase transfers such as your preferred schools responding they are unable to meet needs, or you are stuck on the next steps. There are always things we can do if you talk to us and let us know. This meeting is to help us make sure we are securing as many highest preference places prior to the statutory deadline of 15 February for first entry to school and any children moving on to secondary school. This is also an opportunity to talk about pathways beyond year 11 and to consider other local opportunities as well as college placements for September 2026.

Amirah Ghafar is also going to offer appointments at this meeting to discuss any concerns you have relating to potential Mediation and/or Tribunal cases.

Tuesday 10 March 2026 – Maggie Buckley, Noreen Rahman and Amirah Ghafar
